PRESENTER AGREEMENT

This is an agreement (the “Agreement”) between the Connecticut Center for Advanced Technology Inc. (CCAT) and you, _____, for your participation in SALA 2010 in East Hartford, CT on April 14 and 15, 2010. You and CCAT agree as follows:

1. Your presentation will be entitled “_____” and you will be present to give it at SALA 2010 at the scheduled time. An abstract on your presentation is attached with this agreement.
2. You agree to send an electronic version of your presentation in a PDF format to laserlab@ccat.us on or before March 12, 2010. You acknowledge and agree that your presentation may not appear in the Conference Summary of Proceedings if CCAT receives the electronic version of your presentation after that date.
3. If the presentation you are planning to make at SALA 2010 is similar to one you have previously published or presented elsewhere, you will update or substantially revise this earlier work for your presentation at SALA 2010.
4. CCAT is not responsible for the content of your presentation, but expects that you will not use copyrighted material without permission, which permission you will cite in the presentation and that you will not defame another person or product in your presentation.
5. Presenter hereby grants CCAT a non-exclusive, world-wide, royalty-free, perpetual, and irrevocable right and license to copy, distribute, display, and perform this work, in whole or in part, and to incorporate this work, in whole or in part, into other works (Derivative Works) including publication of the work in both printed and electronic materials on CCAT’s website with proper acknowledgement of copyright rights and citation of the source.
6. You will continue to retain ownership, including copyright rights, in your presentation, and you may republish your presentation in any format you desire at any time.

This Agreement will be effective upon signing and submission to CCAT. Please sign the agreement and return it by February 12, 2010 to:
